

Pedestrian who died on City Bypass is named

A pedestrian who died after the driver of a BMW car collided with him on the A720 Edinburgh City Bypass has been named as Michael Greens.

The incident happened around 5.10am on Saturday, 3 September, 2022, eastbound near the Straiton junction.

Mr Greens, 25, was pronounced dead at the scene.

His family have issued the following statement through Police Scotland: "Michael was an extremely sharp and intelligent man, who would astound and entertain us with his wit and knowledge.

"He was a student of science and history, with a passion for fitness and historical re-enactment.

"A joy to be around, he touched the hearts of those who knew him.

"He will be sorely missed by parents, Billy and Sadie, and brother, Daniel."

The 39-year-old male driver of the BMW 3 Series car involved was uninjured.

The road was closed until around 12.40pm to allow for an investigation at the scene.
