

Scotch Malt Whisky Society events will celebrate the end of summer

The Scotch Malt Whisky Society in Edinburgh is to host a series of exclusive events this month to celebrate the last of the warm Summer nights.

Gather some friends and enjoy 'The Gathering 2022' in Queen Street Gardens to celebrate the Society's annual Gathering of whisky enthusiasts, where old friends and new faces will come together for a day of outstanding whisky, food, and entertainment.

The Gathering 2022 on Saturday 10 September 2022 will include friends of the whisky society including Striped Pig, providing the hog roast, The Oysterman who will be providing freshly shucked oysters and Belhaven Smokehouse, serving smoked and cured fish. And the society's specially curated SMWS Dram Bar.

This year, guests will be joined by their sister company J.G Thomson, allowing members and guests to try some exquisite whisky drams.
