

Popular Steamie sells out at The Brunton

The Brunton inform us that tickets for The Steamie, which runs from Wednesday 25 to Saturday 28 January, are sold out.

Also scheduled is the Golden Globe winning movie The Banshees of Inisherin (15) on Wednesday 25 January. starring Colin Farrell and Brendan Gleeson,

The National Theatre Live brings Arthur Miller's The Crucible to Venue 1's big screen on Thursday 26 January at 7pm. Filmed and transmitted live to The Brunton's cinema screen from the Olivier stage at the National Theatre.

Pianist Alistair Hogarth (pictured) opens The Brunton's new Classical Lunch season with an hour of classical music including Grieg's Holberg Suite on Tuesday 31 January. You catch up with friends over soup and a sandwich in the upstairs bar from noon, before attending the 1pm concert.

Ralph Fiennes and Nicholas Hoult star in Venue 1 movie The Menu (15) on Wednesday 1 February. Tickets are available online at www.thebrunton.co.uk or by calling 0131 653 5245