

ScotHot reveal their 50 Rising Stars

On ScotHot's 50th Anniversary 50 industry superstars are recognised.

A judging panel of industry leaders have revealed ScotHot's 50 Rising Stars, of the country's biggest talents.

And there are some from Edinburgh on the list:

- Stefanie Anderson, Bar Manager: Gleneagles Townhouse – Brilliant in Beverage
- Franck Bruyere, Operations and Sustainability Director: St James Quarter – Rising Up in Retail
- Jamie Crothall, Food & Beverage Director: Virgin Hotels, Edinburgh – Brilliant in Beverage
- Kieran Wight, Head Chef: Elior @ Murrayfield Stadium – Champion Chefs

A fortnight ahead of the event, ScotHot23 has unveiled its list of 50 Rising Stars – celebrating some of the most talented newcomers to Scotland's food, drink, hospitality, retail and tourism industries.

Following an extensive shortlisting and judging process, with more than 200 applications considered, a 'hot list' of 50 Rising Stars has today been revealed by ScotHot, comprising Hospitality Heroes, Champion Chefs, Tourism Trendsetters, as well as those Rising Up in Retail and Brilliant in Beverage.

Individuals were encouraged to nominate their colleagues, friends, employees, and role models in each category, not limited by age but ten years' experience or less within the industry was essential.

ScotHot takes place at the SEC Glasgow from 8-9 March 2023, and is the country's leading showcase for the food, drink, hospitality, retail and tourism industries. It will welcome around 7,000 visitors to the two-day event.

The presentation of the 50 Rising Stars, sponsored by Xpress Jobs and HIT Scotland, will take place at the Spotlight Stage at 4.30pm on Wednesday 8 March. Those on the list will be presented with their certificates and invited to attend the 'STA and ScotHot Industry Social' at Revolution in Glasgow that evening.

Head Judge David Cochrane, MBE, Chief Executive of HIT Scotland, said: "Reading all the submissions was uplifting – it certainly reveals a great statement on the health of the hospitality, retail and tourism sectors in Scotland. There was an abundance of talent, personality and enthusiasm in all of the 50 Rising Stars that was inspirational to all of the judges"

Toby Wand, Managing Director of 365 Events, the company responsible for ScotHot, said: "Seeing so many worthy individuals nominated for our 50 Rising Stars list was incredible, and it was a tough decision for us judges to pick our top 50.

"We would like to say a huge congratulations from all of us at ScotHot to those who made the 50 Rising Stars list – we are so looking forward to seeing you at the event in March and celebrating your achievements together."

Now in its 50th year, ScotHot23 offers an unmissable opportunity for delegates to meet with suppliers, network with others to share ideas and inspiration, and learn about the latest trends from across the industry.

This year's event will be supported by major partners including VisitScotland, Scotland Food & Drink, Scottish Tourism Alliance (STA), Scottish Licenced Trade Association (SLTA), Scottish Licensed Trade News (SLTN), HOSPA, The Scottish Chefs, The Staff Canteen, The Guild of Fine Food, The Caterer and Drink Think.
