

Dogs of the Week – Harvey and Jane

Harvey, a playful 12-year-old crossbreed, and his loyal best friend Jane, a sweet 10-year-old collie, are eagerly anticipating a loving home together.

These delightfully furry friends are seeking an adult-only environment, where they can bask in undivided attention and receive abundant love. Their only requirement is a home without other pets, as they yearn to be the sole recipients of affection.

These lovable pooches cherish their time together, Jane may be the younger out of the two, but she acts like a big sister to Harvey and gives him the confidence he needs to feel safe.

With adventurous spirits, they delight in playing at their own pace in the garden, revelling in the excitement of car rides to new and thrilling destinations. While at home, all they need for contentment are a collection of toys and treats—essential provisions for any canine companion. In addition to playtime, this delightful duo are seeking owners who can shower them with affection and companionship, preferably individuals who are at home for most of the day.

With their loving personalities and playful spirits, Harvey and Jane are ready to bring boundless joy to the fortunate family capable of offering them the warm and nurturing home they so deserve.
