

Five things you need to know today

Music on Friday

While the Brunton is temporarily closed they are working with Loretto School and Northesk Parish Church in Musselburgh to be able to present all the events on their programme.

Aly Bain and Phil Cunningham will bring their new tour Phil & Aly to Northesk Parish Church on Friday 26 May at 7.30pm. With their musical magic and quick-witted humour they will pull your emotional strings one moment and have you falling off the seat with laughter the next. Mike Russell has described them as “probably the best traditional musicians you are ever likely to hear”.

Tickets are available online at www.thebrunton.co.uk or by calling 0131 653 5245

Play Street on Sunday

On Sunday there will be a Play Street from 9am. As Warrender Baths are just opening again on Tuesday after an extended closure, mainly due to Covid, locals are celebrating with a street event outside the pool. The road will be closed making it safe to play and there will be lots of fun activities to do.

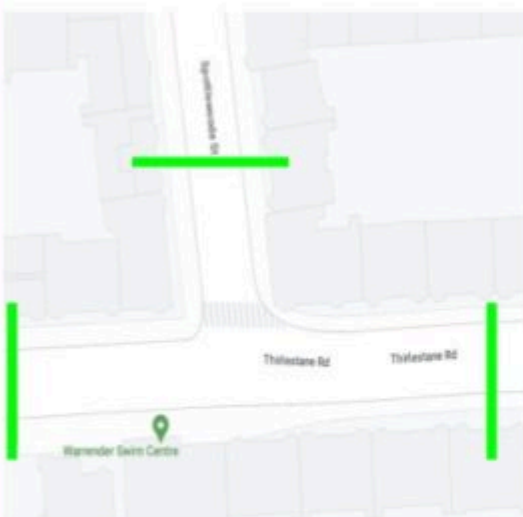

Warrender Baths Reopening

Image by Oliver Brooks: <https://oliverbrookes.co.uk/>

Play Street - 28th May 9am - 1pm

Come and celebrate the reopening of Warrender Baths with the community in our play street event!

The junction outside the pool will be closed to traffic by the council, providing a safe space for all to enjoy.

Everyone is welcome!

You'll have the chance to:

- Meet your neighbours and some of the new staff;
- Play safely in the street, including free chalk;
- Sample free baked goods (please bring your own too!);
- Chat about other ways to improve the local area;

And more!

Network Rail criticised

The SNP councillor Danny Aston has criticised Network Rail for stalling plans to connect the old Piershill to Powderhall line with the city's paths network.

Read more here.

How to future proof your home

Changeworks are behind this event in Stockbridge Church on Wednesday night. You are asked to book your place.

Stockbridge & Inverleith: Future-proofing your home

Wednesday 24 May, 7pm
Stockbridge Church

This free event, hosted by Stockbridge and Inverleith Community Council and Home Energy Scotland, shares how you can reduce heat loss in your home, when it's appropriate to consider new technologies and what funding is currently in place to support this?

Book your free place at bit.ly/StockbridgeEvent

How to subscribe to The Edinburgh

Reporter

All of our content is free to access but if you would like to support us and also get your own copy of our monthly paper delivered to you each month then you can subscribe here.

Or click on the front page below. And if you have any stories then do get in touch.

