

Nisbet set to leave Easter Road

Kevin Nisbet's goal for Hibs in last Saturday's 1-1 draw with Hearts at Tynecastle could be his last for the club as reports suggest that the Easter Road outfit have accepted a seven-figure sum for his services.

The Edinburgh Evening News report that Millwall are the club and the London-based outfit have returned for the striker they tried to sign in the January transfer window.

Millwall apparently agreed terms with Hibs but Nisbet decided to stay in Scotland's Capital however the club are keen to cash in on the Scotland international.

Glasgow-born Nisbet scored 12 goals in 20 matches last season after making his comeback from a cruciate ligament injury in December.

The 26-year-old was earlier this week included in Scotland's squad for the matches against Norway and Georgia.
