It has surely become one of the massive phenomena in the igaming sector.

Social gaming is a form of gaming played over social networks. The main emphasis of social gaming or social casino games is to build connections and interactions between people which mirrors the community-based nature of social media platforms.

What are Social Casino Games?

Social casino games are free-to-play games that mirror the gambling experience or online casinos uk games like blackjack, roulette, and more without any actual payout. These types of casinos completely differ from real-money gambling games as the players are supposed to bet with the virtual credits which are gained upon signing up to such sites. Social casino games have steadily become one of the biggest branches in the field of social gaming.

What is the reason behind people playing social casino games?

There are two main factors why social casino games are popular among people. It is obvious from the title itself. Socializing and Entertainment.

To connect and interact with people or socialize

People all around the world can connect while playing games via the chatting option. Not only this, the leaderboards, and frequent tournaments tempt the users to spend a large amount of time on social casino games to perfect their gambling strategies and playing skills.

For entertainment purposes

The thrill and the rush of adrenaline while playing these games are similar to when you are playing online casino games. Because these imitate the exact experience depicted while online gambling. Both graphics and visuals provide you with a real casino experience.

Types of Social Casino Games

There are quite a few Social Casino Games available on various platforms. Some of them are listed below:

- Bingo
- Blackjack
- Slot Machines
- Poker
- Lottery tickets: Scratch and Gain
- Roulette
- Card Games
- Table Games

Out of all the listed above, online slots are noted as the most popular one among the users. Not only this, various companies are trying to opt for hybrid games to catch the attention of the players.

Monetization of Social Casino Games

As mentioned earlier, Social Casino Games are marked as the world's most popular and trending gaming, of course after RPG and strategy games. These games monetize through in-app purchases and in-app advertisements.

In-app purchase is the common feature used by most mobile games. Although there are free-to-play social casinos, once the initial credit is exhausted they tempt users to purchase credits to play more.

Around one-fourth of the revenue in the online gaming industry comes via in-app advertisements. These include banners, rewarded videos, playable videos, and various other rewarded formats. The developers are now incorporating diversifying ad formats to leverage benefits from various sources rather than just sticking to one.

Verdict

Although it is a growing field, it still needs some areas of maintenance and adaptation of new features to keep the players engaged. Who knows? We might even see the emergence of AR or VR in the upcoming days to have a wonderful experience for the users. Make sure to try out some of the social casino games to strengthen your skills in the world of online casinos.
