

Roadworks in Edinburgh

The latest road closures or events taking place in the capital are listed below. The list is collated by EdinTravel a council department which runs a busy Twitter account advising motorists where to avoid.

All the new entries are in blue and include some streets closed for filming of Rebus later in the week. London Road will be affected by roadworks for eight weeks which resurfacing, and traffic signals and junction upgrades are carried out.

From 10 July, we're beginning a major project to resurface London Rd between Easter Rd and Meadowbank Terr, plus

- Improved junctions for pedestrians + cyclists*
- Sections of segregated cycle lanes*
- Upgraded surface water drainage*

A gas main is still being renewed on Bonaly Road and the expected completion date is not until the end of August.

The manhole repairs on Moira Terrace which began on 6 July were expected to take a couple of days – but were still there on Friday.

Braid Road will be closed on 13 July between Cluny Gardens and Comiston Place to allow for “crane operations”.

If you see any other road closures or diversions then let EdinTravel know.
