

The Red Arrows over Edinburgh

As part of the Royal event on Wednesday there was a special flypast of The Red Arrows.

It was always subject to weather but everything went according to plan and the aircraft flew over Edinburgh Castle down the Royal Mile and over The Palace of Holyroodhouse where The King and Queen, accompanied by the Duke and Duchess of Rothesay waited to see them.

<https://twitter.com/RoyalFamily/status/1676619231134199810?s=20>

Photographer Tony Marsh (@snappermarsh) was on Arthur's Seat poised to get these fabulous shots.

All photos © Tony Marsh Photography

www.tonymarshphotography.com

