

The World Press Photo Exhibition 2023

The World Press Photo exhibition will go on display at The Scottish Parliament from Saturday 5 – Saturday 26 August.

Representing major news events from 2022, the 2023 World Press Photo Contest winning works call attention to some of the most pressing issues facing the world today.

From the devastating documentation of the war in Ukraine and historic protests in Iran, to the realities in Taliban-controlled Afghanistan, and the many faces of the climate crisis in countries ranging from Morocco to Australia to Peru to Kazakhstan.

The exhibition is free and will be on display in the Main Hall of the Scottish Parliament Monday to Saturday.
