

Five things you need to know today

Banff Mountain Film Festival

The film festival will bring a night of films to the Festival Theatre tomorrow evening 16 September.

This is a collection of short films from the world's top adventurers and filmmakers with skiing, climbing and mountain biking all featured.

More details here. www.banff-uk.com

Portobello Rotary Club – looking for new members

Portobello Rotary Club runs monthly car boot sales at Newcraighall Station Park and Ride. The next event takes place on 24 September 2023 and begins at 7.30am.

The club which will celebrate its 70th anniversary next year is now looking for new members to join.

If that is you then head over to their Facebook page to find out more.

Doors Open Days 2023

DAR AL-ARQAM MOSQUE – Lauriston Church was designed by Archibald Scott in Gothic style and completed in 1859. It was originally used by the United Presbyterian Church. It later became disused and was purchased by the Muslim community in 1980. It was used primarily as a social club and was damaged by fire but later opened as a Mosque 2012. It is named Dar al-Arqam, after the first building used by the early community of the Prophet Muhammad in Mecca as a place of teaching. Visitors can observe how the church has been converted into a mosque while maintaining the original beauty of the building.

Find out more here.

Soundhouse at the Traverse

Hidden Waves Quartet appear at The Traverse on Monday.

The music explores a new level of composition and interaction, trying to take things in a different direction to previous recordings by writing with different concepts, intentions and influences and bringing together four extremely creative and interactive musicians. The original concept for the music was that things can happen to us or around us in cycles and waves as opposed to the way maybe prescribed to us by our diaries, time and other factors.

David wrote the music for this group whilst in lockdown in the north of Spain. "The fact that I only had an old nylon string for three months really helped me come up with some music which sounded different to what I had written for groups previously" he remembers. There are Spanish influences in some of the music from David's time spent studying in Barcelona and the guest artist Urpi Barco from Columbia who sings on one track.

Hidden Waves Quartet is comprised Paul Harrison on keys (SNJO, Tommy Smith, Blue Rose Code, Chris Potter, Ulf Wakenius), James Lindsay on bass (Braebach, 2014 Martyn Bennet Prize, Ross Ainsley, Hamish Napier), Doug Hough on drums (Jim Mullen, Donny McCaslin, Evan Parker, Julian Arguelles), and David Series on guitar.

The music is influenced by a complete mix of things including

Flamenco, Debussy, Julian Arguelles and Jim Hall with a focus on improvisation and musical interaction.

Tickets here.

Our September issue

Our September newspaper is published and on the streets of the capital.

Our cover story is about the Lord Provost and Council Leader who took riding lessons to allow them to take part in the Riding of the Marches which took place on 11 September. Our photos are in an article posted here earlier in the week and on Facebook.

Dalry dichards

Fundraising to support cemetery court case

Page 4

Graining favour

Royal Society get curious about barley

Page 8

Bagel bother

Sandwich firm try to fill hole in accounts

Page 12

Picture perfect

Best foot forward for annual art walk

Page 18

Liddell tribute

Gym named after Olympic legend opens

Page 23

the Edinburgh Reporter

September 2023

EDINBURGH'S FREE LOCAL NEWSPAPER... A CAPTION AND FROM START TO FINISH

Riding of the Marches

Lord Provost saddling up in September

By PHYLIS STEPHEN

THE EDINBURGH Riding of the Marches will take place on 10 September in a canter back to the Royal Mile after a three year gap, and this year the Lord Provost, the Provost Consort and the Council Leader will all be on horseback.

The spectacle is more than just a bunch of horse riders taking over the city centre. This is a reenactment of the ancient custom of marching the boundaries, a symbolic tradition of inspecting the Common Land of Edinburgh which dates back to at least 1579.

This year the entertainment on the Royal Mile will begin at 12.30pm with music and stunt performances. The riders will complete their morning of high-energy gallops, starting at the Drum Estate in the south of the city, before making their way through the streets through Holyrood Park and proceeding up The Royal Mile from Holyrood Palace at around 3.30pm.

And in a break from recent tradition, the Rt Hon Lord Provost and Lord Lieutenant, Robert Aldridge, who will be joining the event for the first time, will be making the journey up the Royal Mile on horseback, accompanied by the Lord Provost's Consort, Colin Cunningham, and by the Council Leader Cammy Day.

Clr Day admitted to bribing the horses with treats. He said: "I have been taking riding lessons. I have done a little horse riding more than 20 years ago so I would say I am a real beginner."

Turn to page eight

SHEZAN
INDIAN CUISINE25 UNION PLACE,
EDINBURGH EH1 3NQ

PRE-THEATRE DINING

BOOK YOUR TABLE ONLINE AT
WWW.SHEZANEDINBURGH.COMT: 0131 557 5098
OPPOSITE EDINBURGH PLAYHOUSE10% OFF
YOUR MEALPRESENT VOUCHER
TO YOUR SERVER