

Places to celebrate Champagne Day in Edinburgh

It will be Champagne Day on Friday 27 October and here are some suggestions on where to sample the fizz – unless you already have some at home of course.

ALCOHOL ABUSE IS HAZARDOUS FOR YOUR HEALTH. PLEASE ENJOY RESPONSIBLY.

The Green Room

The Green Room is a wine bar located in Edinburgh's West End with a notable wine cellar – and an impressive Champagne list. The food menu is made up of traditional comfort food, charcuterie sharing platters and innovative smaller plates.

The Green Room, 19-25 William St, Edinburgh EH3 7NG

The Green Room

Hawksmoor

In Edinburgh, Hawksmoor – a short walk from Waverley station, Princes Street and just off St. Andrew Square – draws on the amazing produce that Scotland has to offer and features a wide range of Champagne by the glass and by the bottle for those special occasions.

Hawksmoor Edinburgh, 23 W Register St, Edinburgh EH2 2AA

Hawksmoor Edinburgh PHOTO John Carey

The Bon Vivant

At The Bon Vivant – which was opened in September 2008 by Stuart McCluskey – European-inspired snacks and mains pair well with their Champagne offering, in a relaxed, wood-accented surrounding. The Champagne menu also features half bottles – something for every occasion.

The Bon Vivant, 55 Thistle St, Edinburgh EH2 1DY

Gleneagles Townhouse

Gleneagles Townhouse – a luxury 5-star hotel offering with an all-day restaurant and roof terrace bar – is situated in the heart of Edinburgh, near Old Town. Lamplighters Rooftop Bar is exclusive to members and hotel guests, and is tucked high above the street; offering a sophisticated Champagne menu and stunning city views.

Gleneagles Townhouse, 39 St Andrew Square, Edinburgh EH2 2AD

The Spence at Gleneagles Townhouse

The Register Club at Cheval Edinburgh Grand

The Register Club – located on the fourth floor of Cheval Edinburgh Grand – serves a selection of drinks including Champagne. A widely loved tradition set in one of Edinburgh's historic landmarks, the venue also offers a special Champagne Afternoon Tea.

The Register Club Edinburgh Grand
The Register Club, Fourth Floor, 42 St Andrew Square, Edinburgh EH2 2AD

More information on Champagne Day
here: <https://champagneday.champagne.fr/>