

Autumn Statement business and analysis events

Thomson Cooper Accountants will be running Autumn Statement Briefing Events in Edinburgh and Dunfermline on Friday 24 November 2023.

The briefings will include a concise summary of the Chancellor's Autumn Statement, illustrated by clear examples, plus an overview of other significant changes in the tax regime.

The events are FREE to attend, offering valuable insights for business owners and individuals. There will also be networking opportunities and refreshments. Registration is essential.
