Past Lives

This movie revolves around the two childhood friends who are separated from each other in childhood and reunite in another country. This film is a mixture of romance and emotional intelligence and probably the best movie of 2023. If you are a romantic and tired of the monotonous routine, you need this beautifully nuanced yet powerful movie in your life.

Tori and Lokita

The story of this film Narrates the problems of thousands of immigrants who live their lives in fear of being deport. The story revolves around two young African immigrants. Tori 11 years old boy and Lokita 17 years' girl who are struggling to get their residency in this unkind world. Eventually Tori got the Residency but Lokita who is actually Tori's friend but in papers they are brother and sister, is struggling to get permanent residence to that country, the film began with the interview of Lokita in the immigration office, the cruel questions and Lokita's expressions melted the heart of audience.

Infinity Pool

This movie depicts horror and thrill in an entirely different level. The main character of the movie is the fictional writer who wanted to spend some quality time with his wife in a resort far away from public. While they were happily enjoying their vacation a drunk women told them to discover areas outside the resort from here the thrill and horror begins. Stream it on Hulu with the help of Hulu VPN from anywhere

Talk to me

To me, talk to me is a fresh breath to the Australian film industry. At its core it's an excellent concept with stone cold story. The story is about a group of friends and mysterious hand. They were doing fun activities and things got changed and the plot twisted into the horror nightmare when a teen age boy named Riley trapped by spirits and got physically and spiritually harmed by the evil spirits. The film is quite graphic at time. The entire cast of the film performed very well but the performance of Mia and Riley is superb.

Wednesday

The Addams family series Wednesday combines two stories together. The story of Wednesday (Jenna Ortega) and the mystery of deaths. In the initial phase of the series the leading character portrayed as an evil person but as the story moves forward the emotional and sympathetic side of Wednesday came out, she was against the bullying culture and took revenge by releasing piranhas (deadliest fishes) into the swimming pool full of kids who bully others.

In the whole series she was trying to escape from the school and also resolving the mystery of real deaths. It's a beautiful combination of two generation's story. The character's Hot and cold behavior makes the series more interesting. Meanwhile the supporting characters act very well. If you are a 90's kid, you should definitely watch this series.

M3GAN

A toy company's worker Gemma is working on some projects but one after other they got rejected by the boss, suddenly she got the news of her close relative's death so she made Megan, a life size doll she was designed and programmed by Gemma in her robotics company. She is a blend of emotional as well as artificially intelligent. Megan can play various roles at a time, she is a friend, teacher, guard and guide to kids. The main purpose of behind making Megan is to look after her 8 years old niece who is unfortunately orphaned. The story took a 360-degree turn when Megan tries to harm everyone who tries to bully the kid. It's a thrill movie with some horror touch.

Finding Nemo

If you are an old soul and wants to enjoy some quality time with you and just you and off course with your childhood memories, then your childhood animated movies and packet of your favorite chips are the most calming and soothing combination.

Finding Nemo is one of the best choice to watch. The whole movie depicts the struggle of father to finding his only son in the deep ocean. The Father named Marlin along with his friend Dory struggled to find his son. Dory has short term memory which complicates everything meanwhile makes a plan to escape from the fish tank.

A thousand and One

A thousand and One is the story of devotion a single mom who wants her child to live a happy life. Basically she spent her entire childhood in a foster care. The film begins when she visits her son and noticed he fell from window. She then visits him regularly and despite being homeless she kidnaped her son and moved to friend's place for few day, from here her struggle begins. A thousand and one won the grand Jury prize in the same year.

Peter Pan and Wendy

Peter pan and Wendy, is a great choice to watch with your kids on weekend. Peter Pan is a boy who is innocent and refused to grow while Wendy is a girl who hates boarding school, Peter Pan, Wendy her brother and Tinker bell where they face very difficult situations.

Spiderman across the spider verse

The spider men across the spoider verse is the animated series, it's a sequel of the Spider man series of movies before, last time I watched the spiderman before the pandemic, me and every spiderman's fan desperately waiting for the sequel and yes the come back is a heart wining for the action lovers. The emotional depth is the base of this movies and yet the strongest part of it.

Do watch your favorite movies with your loved ones and if you are alone then cheers its time to give yourself a special treat be available for yourself and make your weekend
