

Afternoon tea with a view

The Old Manor Hotel at Lundin Links is offering festive afternoon teas, served either in the Seaview Restaurant, or in its newly named 1864 Lounge, priced at £19.95 per person.

Available Friday, Saturday and Sunday, from 1pm till 4 pm, all the flavours of Christmas are included in the tempting array of sweet and savoury treats. Sandwich fillings on offer are turkey and cranberry, honey roast ham and roast beef, with other savouries such as pork, sage and onion sausage rolls, and brie and cranberry parcels.

Along with freshly baked scones with jam and cream, diners can indulge in salted caramel brownies, reindeer shortbread, coconut snowballs and raspberry cheesecake bites.

Steven Carleschi, Operations Manager at the Old Manor Hotel said: "Afternoon tea continues to enjoy such a resurgence in popularity.

"We are delighted to offer these fantastic festive afternoon teas at this price point. There really is something for everyone to enjoy. Just let us know at time of booking if you need veggie, gluten-free or vegan choices, and we will be happy to oblige.

"Our newly refurbished lounge has been named in recognition of the year that the building now housing our fine hotel was first built – 1864. It's a fitting setting in which to serve our teas, plus it's looking very festive! Or you can sit in the aptly named Seaview Restaurant with its stunning views of the golf course and beyond.”
