

Peploe included in Lyon and Turnbull auction

A painting by renowned Scottish Colourist, S.J. Peploe, will be offered live in Edinburgh and online by fine art auctioneers, Lyon & Turnbull on Thursday 7 December.

The work titled Still Life with Tulips, which was included in the 1985 exhibition of Peploe's work at the Scottish National Gallery of Modern Art in Edinburgh, is estimated to fetch between £200,000 and £300,000.

The still life was painted between approximately 1918 and 1923 and is a prime example of the works for which Peploe is best known.
