

Police ask public for help in identifying man possibly connected to George Street assault

Detectives in Edinburgh have released images of a man that they believe may have information that can assist with an ongoing investigation into a serious assault.

The incident took place at around 10.30pm on Saturday 18 November 2023 at George Street near to North Castle Street.

The man police believe may be able to assist is described as white and in his 30s with dark-coloured hair. He was wearing a blue and white tie dye t-shirt, with jeans, and black and white trainers.

Detective Constable Christina Yeoman of Gayfield CID said: "This was an unprovoked attack at a busy time of night in the city centre.

"Violent crime such as this is of the utmost concern to police in Edinburgh so I would urge the male or anyone who recognises him to contact us as soon as possible through 101 quoting incident number 743 of 20 November.

“Alternatively contact Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111, where anonymity can be maintained.”

