"Holidays remain a spending priority for consumers of all ages. The demand for a reputable travel agent is at an all-time high which is why we believe that now is the time to move ahead with further expansion throughout the UK.

"Retail travel is thriving, and communities across the country are benefiting from busy travel agency stores. Our commitment to investing in retail has never wavered and we're excited to be bringing new jobs and opportunities as our expansion progresses over the coming 12 months.

"We are in the process of reviewing our new locations and we expect to announce details in the first quarter of 2024."
