

Chief Radio have a new presenter

The new start at Chief Radio is nine years old and is believed to be the youngest radio presenter in Scotland.

Eilidh Moss lives in Dunfermline and is a pupil at Cairneyhill Primary School. Her father Andrew is also a presenter on Chief Radio. He began broadcasting from home in November 2023 when Eilidh took an interest in what he was doing and asked to help. Kirsty Baird who founded the radio station in 2020 agreed to have Kirsty on the airwaves between noon and 1pm on Sundays. Eilidh's Hour is on right after Kirsty's own retro show.

Chief Radio is a community radio station based in Leith, Edinburgh and broadcasting across Scotland online at www.chiefradio.com, on Edinburgh DAB, and you can listen on your smart speaker and by downloading the Chief Radio app.
