

More Memorial Trophy for Martin at Grange SC

The Jim More Memorial Trophy has been held every year since 1980 at Grange Squash Club to commemorate one of the founding members.

This year the silverware went to Martin Lydon, left, after a hard fought 3-1 final success against Chris Lumb.

Martin Lydon, left, with the Jim More squash trophy after defeating Chris Lumb, right.

Greg Edwards, left, defeated Archie Acheampong in the plate event, which provided further competition among those making an early exit.

Greg Edwards, left, defeated Archie Acheampong