

Police investigating alleged rape in Abbeyhill

Police Scotland have confirmed they are investigating an alleged rape in Abbeyhill in the early hours of Sunday morning.

Abbey Street was closed off to allow a forensic search following reports of a sexual assault at around 4.30am.

Enquiries continue.

