

Police looking for dash cam footage after assaults on two men

Detectives in Edinburgh require help to establish what happened after two men were assaulted and a car was stolen in the south east of the city.

Around 8.35pm on Friday 26 January 2024, emergency services attended Southhouse Square, following reports of a disturbance involving several men. One man, aged 25, was found seriously injured and taken to the Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh. A second man, aged 24, was also injured in the altercation and sought medical treatment.

Officers have since carried out door-to-door enquiries and are checking for CCTV footage to establish any additional information about those involved.

Enquiries have established that a black BMW car, with the registration YF13 OWK, was also stolen.

Officers are asking people with dash cams or recording equipment in the area at the time to check footage as there may be images which could assist the police investigation.

Detective Sergeant Steven Dick said: "I am appealing to anyone who was in the Southhouse Square area last night. The motive for these attacks is unknown and it is imperative we trace those responsible. Our enquiries have revealed that a group of up to five men were involved in a disturbance, which has resulted in two men being seriously injured. I would ask anyone who has any information regarding this incident to contact us.”

Anyone with information is asked to call Police Scotland via 101, quoting incident number 3666 of 26 January 2024. Alternatively, please call Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111 with the assurance that you can give your information anonymously.

© 2023 Martin McAdam