

Sales and marketing director appointed at Scottish Gas Murrayfield

A new sales and marketing director has been appointed today at Scottish Gas Murrayfield.

Amanda Brown who has more than two decades of experience in the hospitality trade has been appointed to deal with all aspects of sales and marketing for both match day and non match day events.

Ms Brown was most recently employed by Sodexo in their Sports & Leisure Business but has also worked in five star hotels and other UK premium venues.

Craig Stewart, regional managing director at Elior UK said: "We are excited to extend a warm welcome to Amanda as she joins our team. Her wealth of experience will undoubtedly play a pivotal role in expanding and enhancing our hospitality business at Scottish Gas Murrayfield. We take pride in delivering exceptional hospitality services not only on match days but also for various events, including concerts."
