

Five things you need to know today

Remembering Ukraine

On Saturday there will be a ceremony at Edinburgh Castle marking the second anniversary of Russia's full-scale war against Ukraine. During the memorial service, wreaths will be laid in memory of those who have died.

There will also be a service in the Our Ukrainian Church on Dalmeny Street at 6pm when Father Vasyl Kren will invite the congregation to remember everyone who has died in Russia's war against Ukraine.

24 August is the 31st anniversary of Ukrainian Independence and the notable date was celebrated by the Consul General of Ukraine in Scotland along with the Rt Hon Lord Provost and

Council budget is set

The council has adhered to the Scottish Government's direction to freeze any increase on council tax for the next year and will receive the compensation offered by the government. The additional funding announced by Shona Robison the Finance Secretary means the government has "more or less" fully funded the freeze according to Finance Convener, Mandy Watt.

Year of the Dragon

Bringing success and opportunity

By PHYLIS STEPHEN

THERE WILL BE a full programme of events in the capital to herald the start of the Year of the Dragon and celebrate Chinese New Year 2024.

The entertainment in Edinburgh firms the largest celebration of its kind in Scotland and it runs from 3 to 13 February. There is a wide range of activities including the Official Chinese New Year Concert at Usher Hall which has become an annual fixture in the civic calendar.

The programme includes dragon and lion dances, a bilingual ceilidh, tai chi sessions, calligraphy and tarot card reading, all of which help to promote local businesses and to reinforce the links between Scottish and Chinese culture.

The Dragon is a significant emblem in Chinese culture symbolising power, nobleness, honour, luck and success, and it is predicted that the new year will bring opportunities, changes and challenges.

The festival in the capital is supported by Heriot-Watt University and Hainan Airlines, and is coordinated by Edinburgh Tourism Action Group (ETAG). This forms a large part of the group's China Ready initiative and ETAG will hold their annual conference during the week at the Edinburgh International Conference Centre with training sessions and industry meet-ups.
