

Pensioner seriously injured in crash

Police officers in Edinburgh have issued an appeal for information after a pedestrian was seriously injured in a crash in Oxcgangs.

A bus driver and pedestrian were involved in the collision on Oxcgangs Road North, near the junction with Oxcgangs Avenue, around 8.50pm on Friday, 16 February.

The 74-year-old male pedestrian was taken to the Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh for treatment to serious injuries.

No one on the bus was injured.

The road was closed until around 3.25am on Saturday, 17 February to allow for an investigation at the scene.

Sergeant Grant Hastie, of the Road Policing Unit in Edinburgh, said: "Our enquiries are ongoing and I would urge anyone who may have information to get in touch.

"We would be keen to speak to anyone who was on the bus who hasn't yet spoken to an officer, or anyone who may have dashcam footage from the area around the time of the collision.

"Anyone who can help is asked to call 101, quoting reference 3657 of 16 February."
