

Valentine Film Nights

Classic romance films are back on the big screen at city cinemas this Valentine's night

To mark Valentine's Day, four classic romance films are returning to the big screen at Vue Edinburgh Omni and Edinburgh Ocean– for one night only.

To kick things off, the timeless love story of Jack and Rose is back with Titanic. The film is an epic, action-packed romance set against the ill-fated maiden voyage of the 'unsinkable' Titanic – at the time, the largest moving object ever built. James Cameron's multi-Academy Award-winner will be on the big screen in 3D 4K HDR and high-frame rate, with a cast headed by Oscar winners Leonardo DiCaprio and Kate Winslet.

For those looking for a more uplifting spectacle, 10 Things I Hate About You will also be returning to the big screen for Valentine's Day. The 90s classic stars Julia Stiles and the late Heath Ledger as they navigate high school dating in this wildly entertaining romcom – as loved now as it was 25 years ago.

For lovers of musicals, one of the most celebrated productions of all time will be returning to Vue. Set against the backdrop of 19th-century France, Les Misérables tells the story of ex-prisoner Jean Valjean (Hugh Jackman), hunted for decades by the ruthless policeman Javert (Russell Crowe), after he breaks parole. When Valjean agrees to care for factory worker Fantine's (Anne Hathaway) young daughter, Cosette, their lives change forever.

Finally, one of (if not the) ultimate romcom, Notting Hill will also be returning to the big screen on 14 February. Hugh Grant stars as a London bookstore owner whose humdrum existence is thrown into romantic turmoil when a famous American actress (Julia Roberts) appears in his shop. A chance encounter over spilled orange juice leads to a kiss that blossoms into a full-blown affair. As the average bloke and glamorous movie star draw closer and closer together, they struggle to reconcile their radically different lifestyles in the name of love.

Toby Bradon, General Manager of Vue UK & Ireland, said:

“We’re thrilled to be showing four classic romance films this Valentine’s Day. No matter who you choose to spend the day with, these titles are sure to bring back fond emotions for lovers of film.

“There’s nothing quite like the magic of the big screens and Vue is the perfect place to celebrate Valentine’s!”
