GO OVER THE BRIDGE TO CELEBRATE THE DAY OF LOVE

Love is in the air at Pettycur Bay Holiday Park & The Bay Hotel at Kinghorn in Fife, and at its sister business, the Old Manor Hotel at Lundin Links near Leven.

A special Valentine's Day menu is on offer in Horizons, Pettycur's restaurant, available on Saturday 10th of February 7 till 9 pm, and on Valentine's Day itself, Wednesday the 14th, 6 to 9 pm.

Should couples wish to make a night of it on the Saturday, the Park has laid on professional entertainment in its Images suite, between 8 and 11 pm.

"With Valentine's Day being a Wednesday, we thought that we would start the celebrations early, so that if you're in for a lovely meal on the Saturday, you can then head through to Images if you like, and take in our professional entertainers," said General Manager, Janet Murray.

"James McKay, our Head Chef at Horizons, has created a delicious, fine dining menu for this year's Valentine's celebrations. It has something for everyone, from steamed mussels, and slow braised beef cheeks, to a woodland mushroom risotto, to a Ballotine of chicken.

"For dessert, we are particularly proud of James' amazing – and very romantic – creations, which include a Terrine of Three Chocolates, a Strawberry & Cream Cheese cheesecake, and a light passionfruit panna cotta – all are delightful ways to end a meal."

Along at Lundin Links, the Old Manor Hotel is pulling out all the stops with a five course Valentines meal, on Valentines Day, from 5pm. Priced at £64.96 per couple, and kicking off with canapés and a glass of fizz on arrival, couples can then choose three courses from the menu which is full of the best local seasonal produce. To delight the tastebuds, there's crispy ham hock, roast lemon and thyme chicken, haggis bon bons, flat iron steak and Chocolate Fondant with boozy cherries. The meal ends with tea or coffee and petit fours.

Enjoy the views in the Old Manor's aptly named Seaview Restaurant. Refurbishment continues at the Hotel which now has a new look bar.
