

Easter suggestion – pay a visit to Camera Obscura

Visitors to Edinburgh's Camera Obscura & World of Illusions can follow in the Easter Egg Bunny's paw prints and visit the attraction's rooftop terrace for a selfie with Edinburgh Castle, just one of the many photo opportunities available.

From this Friday 29 March families (and big kids too!) can enjoy an Easter trail around the five floors of the attraction, hunting to find the colourful bunny rabbits lost among 100 interactive exhibits. A sweet treat reward is available to all taking part.

Themed decorations and seasonal projections will be hatching out everywhere and the panoramic Rooftop Terrace remains open all year. Only the bravest can walk through the swirling Vortex Tunnel or find their way out of the magical Mirror Maze.

Voted the best Visitor Attraction Experience in Edinburgh and Lothians at the 2023 Scottish Thistle Awards, the attraction continues to offer fun-filled experiences visitors of all ages can enjoy.

Open every day during the Easter holiday, 8am-10pm from 29 March-13 April. Book tickets online at www.camera-obscura.co.uk. Early-bunnies get 20% off tickets during the holiday for entry before 9am when booked in advance online.
