Vigil for Gaza

There will be a vigil for Gaza today at St Giles' Cathedral and also next Friday at noon until 1pm. The San Ghanny Choir say all are welcome. "We will gather in vigil to mourn the many people killed over the last five months, and to keep calling for an immediate ceasefire, as well as for the safe return of hostages held by Hamas and the many hostages also held by Israel in the West Bank under 'administrative detention'. We will keep singing for a ceasefire."

Makers Market

The quarterly Makers Market will take place at Summerhall on Sunday. More details here.

Leith artist carves out new look for Athletic

By STEPHEN RAFFERTY

THE LEGACY OF world famous artist and Leither Eduardo Paolozzi is helping to support the work of a local football club for which it is believed members of his family played.

The eye-catching special edition Paolozzi football shirt was launched to increase community awareness of Leith Athletic and to raise funds for the launch of girls and women's teams.

The initial run sold out immediately and a new edition - produced on the 100th anniversary of Paolozzi's birth on 7 March - is being shipped worldwide as fans and collectors from as far away as Australia, Brazil, America and The Netherlands, snap up the shirt.

Paolozzi, widely credited as the father of pop art, was born in Leith in 1924 to Italian immigrants and after graduating from the Edinburgh School of Art, became established as a sought-after sculptor, designer, printmaker and in later life, a teacher and academic.

Knighted in 1989, Paolozzi later donated a large body of his work and the contents of his studio to the Scottish National Gallery of Modern Art. Members of Leith Athletic's fledgling girls' squad (left) visited the Modern Two gallery on Belford Road to experience the "Paolozzi at 100" free exhibition which runs until Sunday 21 April.
