CCWEL

The City Centre West to East Link (CCWEL) extends from Roseburn to Leith and although not quite complete as George Street remains unfinished, there is some new surfacing and cycle bollards in Charlotte Square.

Is this the only cycling only roundabout in Edinburgh?

No real idea what this is about..

At the Queen's Hall on Monday

On Easter Monday Irish musician, Glen Hansard, (star of Once and Bono's busking chum) appears at The Queen's Hall. There are some seats left with a restricted view – all you have to do is sit back and relax.

Leith artist carves out new look for Athletic

By STEPHEN RAFFERTY

THE LEGACY OF world famous artist and Leither Eduardo Paolozzi is helping to support the work of a local football club for which it is believed members of his family played.

The eye-catching special edition Paolozzi football shirt was launched to increase community awareness of Leith Athletic and to raise funds for the launch of girls and women's teams.

The initial run sold out immediately and a new edition - produced on the 100th anniversary of Paolozzi's birth on 7 March - is being shipped worldwide as fans and collectors from as far away as Australia, Brazil, America and The Netherlands, snap up the shirt.

Paolozzi, widely credited as the father of pop art, was born in Leith in 1924 to Italian immigrants and after graduating from the Edinburgh School of Art, became established as a sought-after sculptor, designer, printmaker and in later life, a teacher and academic.

Knighted in 1989, Paolozzi later donated a large body of his work and the contents of his studio to the Scottish National Gallery of Modern Art. Members of Leith Athletic's fledgling girls' squad (left) visited the Modern Two gallery on Belford Road to experience the "Paolozzi at 100" free exhibition which runs until Sunday 21 April.
