

Grange swoop for Crawley jnr

Gen!us Grange have landed a major coup ahead of the 2024 domestic cricket season by signing all-rounder Jamie Crawley, son of their former internationalist, Steve Crawley.

Jamie, 23, has been playing minor counties cricket with Cheshire and the arrival of this right hand bat and off-break bowler will help offset the loss of last year's captain, Matthew Foulds who has moved to Australia after leading the club to the Eastern District title in 2023.

Captaining Gen!us Grange this year will be Angus Brown.

Jamie Crawley has moved back across the border to join his dad Steve's old cricket club
