

Danny Boyle season will feature restoration of Trainspotting

Danny Boyle, the British director noted for Trainspotting is being celebrated at Cineworld next month with a mini festival of four of his films. Tickets are on sale for the event at £5 a ticket.

Films will include :

7 May – Sunshine – Futuristic sci-fi thriller penned by Alex Garland returns to the big screen starring Cillian Murphy and Chris Evans.

14 May – Shallow Grave – Celebrate the 30th anniversary of Boyle's dark comic debut feature featuring Ewan McGregor and Christopher Eccleston.

21 May – 28 Days Later – The legendary British zombie movie returns to the big screen. Take in the deserted streets of London and the journey into the unknown...

28 May – Trainspotting – Choose Life. Choose Trainspotting as the iconic gritty cult classic gets a 4K Restoration and will be screened nationwide on May 28th

Stuart Crane, VP of Film Cineworld Group: "Danny Boyle is undeniably one of Britain's greatest directors, and we're thrilled to bring back a selection of his most memorable titles to the big screen for only £5. Whether you're eager to relive the mesmerising sci-fi journey of Sunshine, experiencing the adrenaline-pumping thrills of 28 Days Later for the first time, or indulging in the visually stunning 4K restoration of Trainspotting, there's a cinematic delight for every taste in this tribute to Danny Boyle."

For tickets and showtimes visit cineworld.com or the Cineworld app.

DANNY BOYLE SEASON

SUNSHINE

May 7

30th Anniversary

SHALLOW GRAVE

May 14

28 DAYS LATER

May 21

4K Restoration

TRAINSPOTTING

May 28

*£5 price point applies to standard 2D screens, uplifts are applied to special format screenings. Films only at select cinemas.