

Robyn keeps Grange squash title north of the border

Robyn McAlpine successfully flew the flag for Scottish squash at the Grange Open sponsored by Bellfield Brewery and Commercial Water Solutions.

Teenage top seed McAlpine, from Glasgow, defeated Carys Jones (Gloucester) 11-4, 10-12, 11-8, 11-5 in the final.

The men's trophy went south with Sam Osborne-Wylde seeing off the challenge of Paul Broadberry in straight games.

Homes hopes in the Grade A event were carried by Grange mini league secretary Robert Koenig who lost out to Sam Collins (Borders) in the final.

In Grade B Bettina Buchmann overcame Emmanuel Acheampong, also from Edinburgh, in the final.
