

What's on at The Bay this summer

Pettycur Bay Holiday Park has announced that tribute group, The Jersey Notes – Scotland's number one tribute act playing the music of Frankie Valli and The Four Seasons – will perform on Saturday 20 July at 8.30pm.

Taking place in Images Entertainment Suite, The Jersey Notes are one of the Holiday Park's premier ticketed acts for the Spring and Summer 2024 season, costing £10 plus booking fee per for an over 18s ticket, and £7 plus booking fee for under 18s.

"We are delighted to have secured the services of The Jersey Notes for what will be a truly fantastic show," said Janet Murray, General Manager at Pettycur Bay. "Many of our shows on Fridays and Saturdays are completely free to attend by anyone. You don't have to be staying on the park to come along," she explained. "But we usually do a few premier shows over the year for which we set a very small charge. I'm sure most people will agree that £10 each per ticket represents fantastic value for money. This professional show will have everybody singing and dancing and up on their feet!"

Treating the audience to an evening of nostalgia, The Jersey Notes will magically re-create the style and sounds of one of the biggest acts of the 20th century. Seasoned performers, they will capture the trademark vocal virtuosity, tight harmonies and crisp choreography that made The Four Seasons one of the greatest vocal groups of all time.

Having started off with shows at the Pavilion Theatre, Glasgow, together with The Kings Theatre, Edinburgh, The Jersey Notes have enjoyed future bookings up and down the country, entertaining everybody with their fabulous costumes, amazing vocals and slick moves.

“The Jersey Notes have told us that we can look forward to hearing all the biggest hits, including Big Girls Don’t Cry , Sherry, Walk like a Man, Working my Way back to you, and Oh what a night!” said Janet. “It promises to be a fantastic night, and will undoubtedly sell out, so please get your tickets early.”
