Dean Bowling Club's Bob Cranston collected the McNab Trophy for a third time when he defeated Jim Dennington in the final of a competition commemorating George McNab, a former club president.

For a relatively new bowler Jim Dennington was credited with taking several notable scalps on the way to the final.

Making the presentation is current president Kevin McNab, the late George's son.

Bob Cranston, right, with the McNab Trophy he has won for the third team at Dean Bowling Club.
