

Five things you need to know today

Citadel Youth Centre Leith

Council funding was slashed earlier this year for many charitable bodies including the Citadel Youth Centre where the funding was cut from £125,000 to £50,000. Staff and volunteers are running in the Edinburgh Half Marathon this weekend to raise funds. Dig deep and support this really worthwhile cause (particularly as the weather forecast looks like rain). David Wilkie

Olympic swimmer David Wilkie, MBE, died on Wednesday, aged 70. He was a role model for young people in Edinburgh in the 1970s – first of all winning the bronze Commonwealth medal in 1970 in Edinburgh at the Royal Commonwealth Pool, followed by the silver Olympic medal in Munich and the Olympic gold medal in Montreal in 1976 both for the 200 metre breaststroke, and holding British, Commonwealth, World and Olympic swimming titles simultaneously.

As a boarder at Daniel Stewart's College he trained at Warrender Baths Club, and, in the council owned swimming pool, he trained to become Scotland's greatest swimmer. There is a lovely video here showing him reflecting on his career sitting in the Royal Commonwealth Pool

Who knows where the next David Wilkie will come from?

EDINBURGH'S WEEKLY NEWSPAPER... A CAPITAL READ FROM START TO FINISH

Trew gent

By GEORGE MAIR AND PHYLLIS STEPHEN

HIS SELFLESS ACTS OF GENEROSITY raised more than £1 million for charities, and the late Tom Gilzean, MBE, was much loved and well-known in the capital.

Now, an Our Wullie-themed statue, in the image of the late Scots war veteran and charity fundraiser, has been unveiled on the spot where he used to break for lunch during his long days spent in the city centre collecting cash for charities. The life size sculpture, a replica of one auctioned during an 2019 fundraiser, is now in place outside Gordon's Trattoria on The Royal Mile which was his regular lunch spot. For more than 20 years Tom could be seen rattling his collecting tin, wearing his trademark tartan trews and medals in the city centre.
