

Kari on board while Shaylen returns for Stewart's Melville Cricket Club

Stewart's Melville Cricket Club have welcomed Kari Carswell on board as a women's team coach.

Kari previously had a role as Head of Woman's Cricket at Middlesex and MCC, and has now taken up her new role at Inverleith.

Kari will work alongside Hannah Short to continue the growth and success of the woman's and girls' section.

Someone who is becoming part of the furniture at Stewart's Melville is Shaylen Pillay who is returning for a sixth season as overseas professional.

Stewart's Melville are due to open their Eastern Premiership campaign on Saturday 4 May at home to Falkland.
