

Man 28 arrested in connection with fatal crash that killed 11-year-old schoolboy

Police Scotland has announced that a 28-year-old man has been arrested in connection with a fatal crash on Whitehouse Road in Edinburgh involving a bin lorry and a schoolboy.

The incident happened around 8.20am on Friday, 1 March, near to the junction with Braehead Road.

Thomas Wong, 11, was pronounced dead at the scene.

Officers said that their enquiries to establish the full circumstances are continuing.