

BBC looking for people to get involved in documentary about housing

The BBC are looking for young renters in Scotland to feature in a documentary for BBC Scotland and BBC Three.

The programme will shine a light on the severity of the housing and rental problems in Scotland to raise awareness.

If you would like to be involved then there are contact details on the poster below.

A poster for a BBC documentary about housing in Scotland. It features a woman with long brown hair looking directly at the camera with a serious expression. The background is dark and out of focus. The BBC Scotland and BBC Three logos are in the top corners. Yellow text asks if private renters are worried about losing their homes due to rent increases or evictions. Contact information for a no-obligation chat is provided at the bottom.
