Hibs midfielder Dan MacKay has joined Partick Thistle on a free transfer.

Since joining the Hibs in summer 2021, MacKay has gone on to make seven competitive appearances for the Club, scoring one goal.

MacKay has spent the majority of his time out on loan.

Initially he was with Kilmarnock FC before spending the 2022/23 season at Inverness Caledonian Thistle – where he scored five times in 40 appearances for the Championship side.

Last season he turned out 29 times for Livingston in the Premiership, having five goal contributions.

A Hibs spokesperson said: “Everyone at the Club wishes Dan the best of luck for the future.”
