

Hibs squad heading to Netherlands to prepare for upcoming campaign

David Gray, his coaching staff, and the first team squad will travel to the Netherlands this summer to prepare for the upcoming 2024/25 William Hill Premiership campaign.

The Hibs party will fly out to the Netherlands on Monday 1 July, 2024, before returning home the following Monday (8 July, 2024).

During the intensive eight-day training camp, Gray's side will play two pre-season friendlies facing German side MSV Duisburg and Greek champions PAOK.

Hibs will take on MSV Duisburg behind-closed-doors on Wednesday 3 July, 2024.

With the game being BCD unfortunately supporters cannot attend, however, they can follow the action across Hibs' social media channels.

The second friendly of the camp against PAOK will take place three days later on Saturday 6 July, 2024 kicking off at 3pm (UK time) at the Sportpark Kerkebos (Molenstraat 37, 5866 AA Swolgen).

This game will be open for a limited number of supporters, with ticket details being communicated in due course.
