

Life on the Bay venue to have its own Swiftie show

Edinburgh is still fresh from the excitement of Taylor Swift's electrifying three night stint at Murrayfield, but there is still an opportunity to enjoy yet more Swiftie.

This show is at a much more reasonable price -with Pettycur Bay Holiday Park in Kinghorn announcing that it's arranged a Taylor Swift tribute act – Totally Taylor – who will perform at the park on 11 August.

For just £15 a ticket for over 16's, (who must have someone over 18 with them) and £10 for under 16, audience members can enjoy the show from the UK's number one Taylor Swift tribute act.

The management at Pettycur said: "Igniting the stage with pulsating energy and chart-topping hits, Totally Taylor will delight the audience with the infectious beats of "Shake It Off", to the empowering anthem "Ready for It"! The show will transport the audience to the heart of a Taylor Swift concert. Totally Taylor has meticulous attention to detail, spanning the eras of Swift's illustrious career."

"We are delighted to announce this exciting tribute gig which is bound to be one of our most popular tribute acts yet," said Janet Murray, General Manager of Pettycur Bay Holiday Park. "Totally Taylor comes to us highly recommended and will deliver a thrilling journey through her unparalleled chart-topping catalogue. There's also a meet and greet at the end which will delight young fans."

"We have seen the amazing costumes Totally Taylor wears, and they are exact replicas. She, and her fellow performers, exude the essence of Swift's persona, captivating audiences with their high-energy stage presence and breath-taking live vocals."

"Secure your tickets early for this amazing show," finished Janet. "Doors open at 3.15pm, with the event starting at 4.00pm."

Furter details on www.pettycur.co.uk

