

McEwan wins and Scottish Ladies host Open Day

The Bass Rock Shore Angling League host round six of their Summer Series on Wednesday, June 12, at a venue to be decided.

Barry McEwan (Port Seton), a Scotland international, (pictured) won round five which was a pegged match on Belhaven Beach with nine fish for 204cm.

Neil Anderson from North Berwick was second but well behind. He hooked into six fish for 132cm and third was Chris Empson (Dunbar), also with six fish, but for 118cm.

Jamie McHale (Gifford) had three fish for 87cm with Graham Meadows fifth with four fish for 70cm.

McHale had the longest fish at 33cm.

Meanwhile, a reminder that the Scottish Ladies Fly Fishing team host an Open Day at Burnhouse Lochan fishery near Bonnybridge on Sunday, June 9 from 9.30am to 5pm and the cost of £20 includes a BBQ lunch.

To book your place contact lane@scotlandladiesflyfishing.co.uk

Kirsty Murray, who made her debut for the national team in the recent Home International, said they would be delighted to welcome any newcomers who may feel they can contribute to the development of the squad.