

New holiday home is Lord of the Manor

As a special offer for the summer season, Camelot Holiday Park at Longtown in Cumbria, is selling a two bedroom, fully furnished Willerby Manor holiday home, complete with a full wraparound deck, and fully paved driveway, for £48,000.

The 38 x 12' property must be purchased by the end of July to enjoy the special price. It is also available with no site fees to pay until next year, another saving for any new owner.

Willerby is one of the U.K.'s top holiday home manufacturers, a trusted name that Camelot Holiday Park situated a couple of hours from Edinburgh either by car or public transport offers its buyers. Open a full twelve months of the year, the family run park, which has a secure, gated entrance, only ever teams up with the suppliers to guarantee its holiday home buyers a quality home.

Complete with an open plan well-lit layout comprising living area, kitchen and dining area, the Willerby Manor also has two good sized bedrooms, including a master en-suite shower room, and a main bathroom with full size bath. The fitted kitchen also has integrated appliances.

"This is an exceptional holiday home, one of Willerby's most popular models. The owner of this Willerby Manor will enjoy many years of happy holiday home ownership here on our picturesque park,” said park owner, William Stewart.

“We pride ourselves on being family run, and on being open a full twelve months of the year.”

William finished by saying: “At this incredible price, plus no site fees to pay until 2025, this Willerby Manor will not hang about for long. Please get in touch with us if interested and we will give you a full tour of the property, and the park itself. We have many local attractions right on the doorstep.”
