

Shannon McGregor will leave Hibs following the expiration of her contract

Shannon McGregor will leave Hibs following the expiration of her contract this month (June 2024).

McGregor joined Hibernian in December 2017, quickly establishing herself as a key player in midfield –despite her injury troubles and has gone on to make 125 appearances for the Hibeas during the past seven years with the Club.

During her time in Leith, she has lifted the League Cup on two occasions in 2018, and 2019 and the Scottish Cup in 2018.

After several years of dedicated service, the 24-year-old has decided to take the next step in her career and explore new opportunities.

McGregor said: “Leaving Hibernian is one of the toughest decisions I’ve had to make. This Club has been my home for the past seven years, and I am incredibly grateful for all the support I’ve received from the fans, my teammates, and the staff.

“I have grown immensely as a player and as a person, and I will always cherish the memories we’ve made together. Thank you for everything.”

Hibernian FC Women’s Head Coach, Grant Scott added: “Shannon is a player that I have thoroughly enjoyed working with over my two spells at the Club, a top professional both on and off the park.

“We have been in dialogue with Shannon since the turn of the year about extending her terms but following multiple conversations, Shannon feels that now is the right time for her to explore a new challenge.

“While we are sad to see her go, we are proud of her efforts and all she has achieved during her time at Hibernian.”

Everyone at Hibernian FC would like to wish Shannon all the best for the future, and thank her for her efforts.
