

Woman taken to hospital following crash on Woodhall Road

A woman has been taken to hospital following a crash on Woodhall Road this afternoon, Tuesday 18th June 2024.

The collision involving a car and female pedestrian took place at 3.45pm.

The road was closed and officers advised drivers to avoid the area.

A Police Scotland spokesperson said: "Woodhall Road is closed due to a road crash involving a car and a female pedestrian at the junction with Bridge Street.

"Emergency services were called around 3.45pm and the woman has been taken to Edinburgh Royal Infirmary for treatment.

"Members of the public are being advised to avoid the area."