

Christine Jardine arrives to loud cheers from her supporters

It seemed like a victory lap when Christine Jardine – who has been Liberal Democrat MP for the last two terms – arrived at the Highland Hall at Ingliston around 2.30am.

Her supporters already believe that she has held the seat in Edinburgh West by a considerable margin.

Scottish Liberal Democrat leader, Alex Cole-Hamilton MSP was there to greet her with many supporters including the leader of the Liberal Democrat group on The City of Edinburgh Council, Cllr Kevin Lang and Cllr Louise Young.

A crowd of cheering Scottish Lib Dems, led by leader Alex Cole-Hamilton, enthusiastically greets their Edinburgh West candidate Christine Jardine as she arrives at the count #GE24 @EdinReporter pic.twitter.com/ydUl96rKgh

– Stuart Moyes (@stuart_moyes) July 5, 2024

Cllrs Kevin Lang and Louise Young with candidate Christine Jardine and Scottish Liberal Democrat leader Alex Cole-Hamilton

