

Concerns grow for missing man after police find Vauxhall Vivaro van extensively damaged

UPDATE: 1pm Sunday 7 July. Jordan traced safe and well say police

Police Scotland are appealing for information after a van was found crashed on a private road off the A1107 at Old Cambus Townhead in the Scottish Borders and the driver missing.

Concerns are growing for Jordan Douglas, aged 33, who is believed to have been driving the vehicle as the black Vauxhall Vivaro van was extensively damaged.

He is described as white, around 5ft 6ins, with brown hair. It is not known what he is wearing.

Jordan has connections in the Tranent area in East Lothian.

Inspector Billy Telford said: "Around 00.20am on Saturday, 6 July, we received a report of a one vehicle crash on a road off the A1107 and when officers attended there was no sign of the driver.

"The van had significant damage and we are concerned the driver may be injured so it is important to make sure he is safe and well.

“We are asking anyone who has seen Jordan or who knows where he might be to get in touch.

Likewise, if Jordan hears about this appeal please make contact so we know you are safe and well.”

Anyone who can assist is asked to call Police Scotland on 101, quoting incident number 0083 of Saturday, 6 July, 2024.
