

Fusion Fridays youth project to be joined by Interlopers Orienteering Club this week

The Fusion Fridays youth project will again be running this Friday from 6:30 to 8pm.

The Police Scotland initiative runs in partnership with McDonalds, Places for People Group, 6VT, The City of Edinburgh Council, Cameron Toll Shopping Centre & Community Alcohol Project.

The project for young people during the school summer holidays is aimed at 11-15-year-olds

This week officers will be joined by Interlopers Orienteering Club who will be providing another exciting taster session.

Those wishing to attend should meet outside McDonalds @ Cameron Toll.
